

MISS REECE INTRODUCED AT DANCING PARTY GIVEN BY MRS. VOGEL AT RITZ

MISS MADELAINE REECE.

Pretty Debutante Is Presented
With Her Cousin, Miss Violet Henry.

Miss Madeline Reece and Miss Violet Henry, nieces of Mrs. Martin Vogel, were introduced at a dance given by her in the small ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton last night. Miss Henry is also a niece of Lady Henry of London. Among the girls who accepted were the Misses Sylvia Brown, Helen Outerbridge, Ada Heinze, Virginia de Haven, Fay Lewishohn, Leo-nora Henry, Louise Valentine and Allice O'Gorman. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Roland F. Kilman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul de Saint Phalle and the Hon. Ewen E. S. Montague.

SING CHRISTMAS CAROLS.

Long Island Will Revive Beautiful Old English Custom.

The old English custom of singing Christmas carols on the evening before Christmas is to be revived this year by Christ Episcopal Church, Manhasset, L. I.
The first carols will be sung outside the parish house, then the chorus will be taken in automobiles to sing in front of various homes in the neighborhood, especially homes where there is sickness.
The church plans to make this an annual observance.

Gen. Harries Will Regale Electrical League With Stories.

Brig. Gen. George H. Harries, formerly head of the American Military Mission in Berlin, will be the honor guest of the New York Electrical League at its luncheon to-day at the Hotel Mc-Alpin. He is expected to tell an extremely interesting story of his experience in the German capital.

Flint's Fine Furniture

YOU MAY hang cre-tonnes at your windows, lay your hearth-fire with resins pine knots, decorate your walls with rainbow tints—but if your home is denied lamps of brilliant illumination it will lack cheeriness. A gift? No inspiration bears more joyous possibilities.
